Ben,

After seeing you couldn't open the files Trish sent, I went through my email records and put together the attached zipped file containing all of the applicable email records from my search.

Trish, could you please resend Ben the ones from ChemTech sometime next week? I think they communicated most directly with you, and didn't see those in the records I pulled.

Ben, if you're able to open these files, I think that closes the loop on your needs from PRD. Please confirm.

Dana
